

Garrett E. Pierce

Chief Financial Officer

Garrett E. Pierce is the Chief Financial Officer of Orbital ATK, a global leader in aerospace and defense technologies. With annual revenues of approximately $4.5 billion and a workforce of 12,500 people, the company designs, builds and delivers space, defense and aviation-related systems for customers around the globe, both as a prime contractor and merchant supplier.

Prior to his current position, Mr. Pierce joined Orbital Sciences in August 2000 as Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer. In August 2002, his position was elevated to Vice Chairman and Chief Financial Officer. Mr. Pierce also served as a member of Orbital's Board of Directors. Prior to joining Orbital, Mr. Pierce served as Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer/Chief Administrative Officer for Sensormatic Electronics Corporation, a global electronics security company. Beyond managing the company's finances, Mr. Pierce oversaw Sensormatic's corporate communications, human resources, information technology and legal departments.

Earlier, Mr. Pierce was Executive Vice President and Chief Financial Officer at California Microwave, Inc., a leading supplier of microwave and satellite systems for communications and wireless networks. Previously, Mr. Pierce progressed from Chief Financial Officer to President and Chief Executive Officer of Materials Research Corporation, a provider of thin film technology equipment and high purity materials to the semiconductor industry. Sony Corporation acquired Materials Research Corporation as a wholly owned subsidiary in 1989. Mr. Pierce has also worked for The Signal Companies, Touche Ross (now known as Deloitte & Touche) and Time Warner.

Mr. Pierce holds bachelor's and master's degrees in economics from Southern Illinois University and attended Stanford University's Executive Financial Management Program. He is a certified public accountant.
